SEX ED SPEAKEASY

Started in October 2021, Angel Russell (COO) and the late Steven Russell then (Head of Production) launched Sex Ed Speakeasy. Let's drink and talk about sex! During Prohibition in the 1920s and 1930s, people had to whisper special codes to get into backdoor establishments to drink and dance. This kind of establishment became known as a Speakeasy. As we enter the 2020s, we're seeing an entirely different type of prohibition emerge: a prohibition on any content deemed sexual in nature, including sex education. Sex Ed Speakeasy will take a fun look at the history of sex and sex education and the impacts that history has on us today. We also have two mixologists who will be helping us choose a featured cocktail for each episode.

As of April 25 2022, the Sex Ed Speakeasy audio feed is being distributed over all major players such as iTunes, Spotify, iHeartRadio, Overcast, Stitcher, etc. We have [8] full episodes published, as of [25-04-2022].
